

CONFERENCE EXTENDED ABSTRACT FORMAT

All submissions must conform to this format irrespective of whether you are submitting a full or oral-only presentation. The word limit is 1500 excluding references, tables and figures.

Tourism in Florida: A Contemporary Review

Adam Smith
Faculty of Management
University of Ocala, USA
Email: adam.smith@ocala.edu

Robin Smith
Faculty of Travel
University of Maitland, USA
Email: robin.smith@maitland.edu

Introduction

Insert text here

Theoretical Foundation(s) / Review of the Literature

Insert text here

Research Methodology

Insert text here

Research Findings

Insert text here

Conclusion and Implications

Insert text here

References

- Always provide the full list of authors when referencing an article for the first time followed by et al. thereafter.
- Always provide page numbers when directly quoting from an article i.e. (1986, p.4).
- When providing a list of references in the main text ensure that they are in alphabetical rather than ascending year order.

Reference style at the end of the paper as follows

Roberts, B. (2003). The Sunshine State: Tourism development in Florida. Journal of Tourism Science, 23(4), 34-45.

Smith, R., & Smith, A. (2010). The art of writing a tourism paper: A critical review. Journal of Florida Tourism, 4(6), 23-42.

Wilkins, T. (2009). Tourism and hospitality: An introductory text. (5th ed.). Oxford: Pearfellow Publishers Ltd.

WTO (2005). Basic references on tourism statistics. World Tourism Organization, Madrid.

Zelkin, P. (2003). How to deliver a good conference presentation. In B. Rogers, & A. Hyder (Eds.), Introduction to tourism conference presentations (pp. 14-36). Boston: Cambridge Publishing Inc.